MAYFAYRE 2026

A huge and heartfelt thank you to everyone who helped make this year's Mayfayre such a fantastic success! 🌸

From the moment the first table was set up to the final item packed away, it was a true team effort - and it showed in every detail.

Special thanks go to Lindsey and her wonderful team in the refreshments tent, who kept everyone fuelled, smiling, and coming back for "just one more" cup of tea or slice of cake. And to Carl and the safety marshals, who ensured everything ran smoothly and safely - often without anyone realising just how much was happening behind the scenes - we are incredibly grateful.

To all our amazing stallholders, thank you for bringing colour, creativity, and community spirit. You made the Mayfayre such a joy to explore.

To our brilliant volunteers who helped set up, clear away, lift, carry, organise, and problem-solve - often at lightning speed - you are absolute stars. ✨

And to everyone who came along to support, take part, and enjoy the day: you are what makes this event so special. It simply wouldn't be the same without you.

A big cheer for our May Queen and her attendants - you brought tradition, charm, and a wonderful sense of occasion to the day. To everyone who performed, participated, or contributed in any way - on stage, behind the scenes, or somewhere in between - thank you for sharing your time and talents.

Finally, a special thank you to the Mayfayre Committee - the dedicated team working behind the scenes to make the magic happen year after year. Your planning and hard work never go unnoticed. We hope you can now enjoy a well-earned rest.....before preparations for Mayfayre 2027 begin!

It truly takes a community to create a day like this, and we are so lucky to be part of such a fantastic one.

Here's to a wonderful Mayfayre - and to all of you who made it unforgettable.

And did you notice ... it didn't rain! ☀️
