Crawley Writers' Circle Poetry Trail' Light and Life in Crawley' March 2024

Crawley Writers' Circle are planning a poetry trail in the town in connection with Wordfest Crawley. Anyone who enjoys writing poetry is invited to send poems for inclusion to crawleywriterscircle@gmail.com. The deadline for receiving poems is midnight 13th December 2023. Poems may also be handed in at Crawley Writers Circle, Crawley Creative Writers meetings or to any member of Crawley Writers' Circle.

Terms and Conditions

1. Poems must loosely fit the theme 'Light and Life in Crawley'.
2. All poems must be 'family friendly' and suitable for a public space.
3. Poems must be not more than 14 lines long (20 with spaces)
4. Poems may be in a language other than English if a translation is provided – this will be verified.
5. Authors must have some connection to Crawley.
6. Up to five poems may be offered for consideration. Not all poems may be used, but at least one poem from each author will be included if suitable.
7. No remuneration will be offered as this is a community project.
8. Copyright remains with the author.

Love Christmas 2023. Any donations towards Love Christmas would be gratefully received, all of which will be match funded. This can also be done via the above link. And if you would like to join the team to help pull this off, details can be found on the same link

Over 53,000 households across Sussex are living in fuel poverty this year. The escalating cost of living and soaring energy bills are forcing families into a distressing dilemma: choosing between warming their homes and putting food on the table, or covering crucial expenses such as shoes and clothing.

Can you consider sharing your winter fuel allowance with those local families who are facing the greatest hardships?

Please give directly online following this link:

Flowers - we are considering a new scheme where people can donate towards the flowers for a particular Sunday in the year (not including the weeks of Lent or Advent) in dedication to a departed family member and/or friend. If you would like to be a part of this scheme please speak to Patricia Upham-Hill. The name of the person can be put on the news sheet on the week of the donation if you would like. If you would like any further information please speak to me or Patricia. Christine
